

Risk-coverage — SimpleMC

Risk-coverage — TriviaMC

Sorts examples by $P(\text{Answer})$ descending and plots the cumulative accuracy as coverage grows. A higher, more concave curve means $P(\text{Answer})$ ranks winners above losers — good selective prediction. A flat curve at overall accuracy means $P(\text{Answer})$ carries no information about whether the model will get a question right.